

Mamalilikulla Nation Election Information

Hello. My name is Maggie Paquet and I am the Electoral Officer for your election, which will be on Saturday, April 27, 2019. I live in Port Alberni and have been doing First Nations elections for about 18 years. I have conducted about 35 elections under various methods. As you know, Mamalilikulla has a new Custom Code for your election process.

The main stages in your election are (1) the Nomination Meeting, (2) the Candidates' Forum, (3) the two Advance Polls, and (4) the Main Poll on election day.

The Nomination Meeting will be held at the KDC hall in Campbell River on Thursday, March 7, between the hours of 5:00 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. All electors have been mailed a nomination package consisting of the official notice (green); a voter declaration form (yellow), which is a legal document that identifies the elector as the person who is voting; and a nomination form (white) to nominate a candidate for either, or both, chief or council. You may make copies of the blank form if you want to nominate more than one person. The yellow and the white forms must be filled out in full (and the yellow form witnessed) and mailed back as soon as possible. There is an addressed, stamped envelope in the package to send these forms back to me. If you don't receive your nomination package after about a week, please contact me to make sure I have your current address. Any elector may also nominate candidates in person at the Nomination Meeting.

Please try to have as much contact information about your candidate(s) as possible in case they are not present at the meeting. Potential candidates must sign their acceptance or withdrawal form and pay the $200 fee within 5 days of the nomination meeting or their name cannot be on the ballot. I need to contact candidates as soon as possible to get their forms and collect the fee, which will be held in trust during the election process.

The Candidates' Forum will also be held in Campbell River. The date and place for this has not been determined yet, but the information will be available as soon as it is. The Forum will be live-streamed. Information about that will also be available at the band office, on the band website, and on the Mamalilikulla election Facebook page.

A ballot package will be mailed to all electors over the week of March 18-22. Any elector may vote in person at one of the two advance polls or at the main poll. Please remember to bring your ballot package with you to use it at one of these polls:

1. The first advance poll will be held in Port McNeill on Tuesday, April 23, at the Black Bear Resort meeting room between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 8:00 p.m.
2. The second advance poll will be held in Vancouver at the Vancouver Friendship Centre at 1607 East Hastings Street between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m.
3. The main poll will be on Saturday, April 27, between 8:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. at the Thunderbird Hall in Campbell River. The ballots will be counted after the close of this main poll.

If you have any questions or don't get your mailings, please contact me at 1-855-586-8683 (toll-free) or by email: maggie_paquet@telus.net
