Canada has agreed to pay compensation to Eligible Class Members in accordance with the severity of harms they suffered while attending an Indian Day School. This severity is measured against a Harms Assessment Grid that contains five levels of compensation. The level and associated compensation are the following:

Level 1: $10,000.00

Estates can make claims. This will go back as far as November 2007. If a person has passed away between November of 2007 and today, the estate of that person can still make a claim on that person's behalf. So conceivably family members would share in the proceeds of those compensation on behalf of the estate.
