

Canadian Adult Education Credential

1. Adult Basic Education (ABE) in British Columbia

- Description: Adult learners in BC can access Adult Basic Education (ABE) programs at colleges across the province. These programs offer pathways to GED completion.
- Website: ABE Programs BC

2. Canadian Adult Education Credential in Manitoba

- Description: The Manitoba Department of Education provides information about CAEC testing and adult education programs for Indigenous learners in Manitoba.
- Website: Manitoba CAEC Program

3. Canadian Adult Education Credential (CAEC) in Ontario

- Description: The Ontario Ministry of Education offers a CAEC program, providing adult learners with the opportunity to achieve a high school equivalency certificate.
- Website: Ontario CAEC Program

4. Alberta Education - High School Equivalency (CAEC)

- Description: Alberta Education provides resources for adults seeking to complete their CAEC through testing centers across the province.
- Website: Alberta CAEC Program

5. Government of Saskatchewan - CAEC Testing

- Description: Offers resources and details on how to take the CAEC test in Saskatchewan, including eligibility requirements and study materials.
- Website: Saskatchewan CAEC Testing

6. New Brunswick CAEC Program

- Description: The official site for the CAEC program in New Brunswick offers details on test registration, preparation, and obtaining the equivalency diploma.
- Website: New Brunswick CAEC Program